TOCK

TOCK transmite ao seu utilizador, através da sua redução formal e da produção de objetos em série, uma percepção fenomenológica nova do ambiente onde se insere. O seu carácter geométrico demonstra a forte influência do constructivismo, que embora minimalist, a torna destemida na sua essência. Através das suas variadas formas, soluções e texturas é-lhe conferida capacidade para competir com as demais soluções do mercado, desfrutando de um carácter de afirmação em espaços de diferentes contextos. Pernas centrais com forma I compostas por ângulos rectos; práticas de produção otimizadas permitindo o aumento da rentabilidade; diversificadas opções de apoio à secretária individual e de grupo sempre com soluções elétricas económicas; blocos de apoio versáteis; divisorias; torres estruturais com capacidade de transporte oculto de cabos e possibilidade de junção de vários postos. Estas são as principais qualidades presentes neste produto que conferem ao seu espaço a imagem dinâmica e flexível que caracteriza a nossa sociedade.

TOCK transmits to its user, through its formal reduction and serial objects production, a new phenomenological perception of the environment where it operates. Its geometric nature demonstrates the strong influence of constructivism, which although minimalist, makes it fearless in spirit. Through its variety of shapes, solutions and textures is conferred ability to compete with other solutions in the market, enjoying an outstanding position in spaces of different contexts. Central legs with I shape made up of right angles; optimized production practices allowing increased profitability; diverse options to support individual and group desks always with economic power solutions; versatile support drawer units; screens; structural towers capable of carry cables and the possibility of joining several workstations are just some of the qualities present in this product which gives to your space a dynamic and flexible image that characterizes our society.

TOCK transmet a son utilisateur, grâce à sa réduction formelle et sa production d'objets en série, une nouvelle perception phénoménologique de l'environnement dans lequel elle opère. Sa nature géométrique démontre la forte influence du constructivisme, que, bien que minimalist, fait inébranlable dans l'esprit. Les diverses formes et textures lui confèrent des solutions qui lui donne la capacité de rivaliser avec d'autres solutions sur le marché, bénéficiant d'un caractère d'affirmation dans les espaces des différents contextes. Jambes centrales avec la forme du I constituées par des angles droits; méthode de production optimisé permettant une meilleure rentabilité; multiples options de soutien au bureau individuelle et de groupe, toujours avec des solutions d'alimentation électrique économique; caisson de support polyvalent; cloisons, des tours structurelles avec la capacité de transporter les câbles et la possibilité de rejoindre plusieurs postes de travail sont quelques qualités présentes dans ce produit, ce qui donne à votre espace une image dynamique et flexible qui caractérise notre société.

TOCK transmite a su utilizador, a través de su reducción formal y de la producción de objetos en serie, una percepción fenomenológica nueva del ambiente adonde se incluye. Su carácter geométrico enseña una fuerte influencia del constructivismo , que mientras minimalist, la hace osada en su esencia. Sus diversas formas, soluciones y texturas le aportan capacidad para competir con las demás soluciones del mercado, disfrutando de un carácter de afirmación en espacios de distintos contextos. Patas centrales en forma de I componidas por ángulos rectos; procesos de producción optimizados permitiendo incrementar su rentabilidad; distintas opciones de apoyo a las mesas simples y dobles siempre con soluciones eléctricas económicas; cajoneras de apoyo versátiles; divisorias; torretas estructurales con capacidad para ocultar el cableado y la posibilidad de unión de multiplos puestos son algunas de las calidades presentes en este producto que aportan a su espacio una imagen dinámica y flexible que caracterizan nuestra sociedad.
